Re: Chemetco Superfund Site, Hartford, Illinois
Response to November 30, 2011 General Notice of Potential Liability and Request for Information issued to Border Steel, Inc.

Dear Ms. Kerr:

ArcelorMittal Vinton, Inc. is in receipt of U.S. EPA's General Notice of Potential Liability relating to the Chemetco Superfund Site located in Hartford, Illinois, dated November 30, 2011, and addressed to Border Steel, Inc. U.S. EPA included a Request for Information pursuant to CERCLA § 104(e) as Enclosure D to the General Notice. ArcelorMittal appreciates the extensions granted by U.S. EPA to date and, while reserving the right to supplement this Response if and when additional information is located, is submitting this Response on or before the current May 4, 2012 due date.

RESPONSE TO GENERAL NOTICE OF POTENTIAL LIABILITY

U.S. EPA's General Notice is directed to "Border Steel, Inc." and the information provided by the agency as part of the November 30, 2011 package identifies "Border Steel, Inc." on the attached lists of potentially responsible parties. Mittal Steel USA, Inc. acquired Border Steel, Inc. in 2007. Shortly thereafter, Mittal Steel USA, Inc. became ArcelorMittal USA, and on January 2, 2008, Border Steel's name was changed to ArcelorMittal Vinton, Inc. The ArcelorMittal Vinton facility was originally built in 1962 by Border Steel Company and is located at I-10 and Vinton Road, Vinton, Texas. The facility operates an electric arc furnace to make steel, specializing in rebar for the commercial and industrial construction industry, fabricated products, grinding balls, and smooth rounds.

ArcelorMittal Vinton has undertaken a diligent review of records that might reasonably be expected to contain information relative to any dealings with Chemetco. Upon receipt of the Request, plant environmental personnel searched plant environmental files for any records of Chemetco. The search also included bills of lading and waste manifests from 1999 - 2001. No records relating to Chemetco were located. In addition, electronic and hard copy accounts payable files were also searched in the plant's main office and in storage. A separate file was located for Chemetco in the main office, which included the documents that are being provided as Attachment A to this Response. However, these documents indicate that a former affiliate of Border Steel – El Paso Iron & Metal Company – shipped materials to Chemetco in the 2000-2001 timeframe. Thus, based upon its search to date, ArcelorMittal Vinton has found no records indicating that the Vinton plant made any shipments of scrap metal of any kind to Chemetco, directly or indirectly.

Some of U.S. EPA's documents also make reference to El Paso Iron & Metal Company, suggesting that Border Steel, Inc. is or was doing business as El Paso Iron & Metal Company. This is not the case. It appears that the agency may mistakenly believe that El Paso Iron & Metal and Border Steel are one and the same.

U.S. EPA may be confused because Border Steel, Inc. and the original El Paso Iron & Metal Company ("Old El Paso") were both once owned by a common parent (BSRM Holdings), the stock of which Mittal Steel USA, Inc. acquired in 2007 pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated December 19, 2006. However, the two companies underwent different and separate transformations over the years, with no overlap in their structure, fate or activities. As noted earlier, the Vinton plant is located at I-10 & Vinton Road in Vinton, Texas. Old El Paso was located 15-20 miles away at 1535 East San Antonio in El Paso, Texas. The Vinton plant is an electric arc furnace steelmaking facility, whereas Old El Paso was (and as New El Paso is still) a commercial processor of ferrous and non-ferrous scrap metal. Importantly, all or virtually all of the operating assets of Old El Paso had already been sold to an unrelated company before the acquisition by Mittal Steel in 2007. It is ArcelorMittal Vinton's understanding that the assets of Old El Paso were sold to El Paso Iron & Metal I, Ltd. in 2005. Thus, although Mittal Steel acquired the stock of Old El Paso, by that point in time Old El Paso was essentially a shell entity with no meaningful assets. It appears that El Paso Iron & Metal I, Ltd. continued the operations of Old El Paso uninterrupted and unchanged following the 2005 acquisition, and today operates under the name of El Paso Iron & Metal (New El Paso) at the same 1535 East San Antonio address. This is also the same address listed on the records included as Attachment A to this Response.

Based upon the foregoing, El Paso Iron & Metal I, Ltd. (now New El Paso) is the successor to any liabilities of Old El Paso relating to any dealings with Chemetco. Although El Paso Iron & Metal I, Ltd. acquired the assets of Old El Paso, rather than the stock, well-established principles of successor liability in the asset acquisition context (i.e., based upon de facto merger or "mere continuation" theories) point directly to New El Paso. ArcelorMittal Vinton was never the successor to Old El Paso. And neither ArcelorMittal Vinton nor any ArcelorMittal affiliate became the successor to the liabilities of Old El Paso because New El Paso had already assumed any historic liabilities of Old El Paso over a year before the acquisition by Mittal Steel.

To summarize, ArcelorMittal Vinton believes that U.S. EPA has mistakenly identified the Vinton facility when it meant to identify the separate scrap processing facility located over 15 miles away, El Paso Iron & Metal. In addition, New El Paso is the legal successor to the potential liabilities of Old El Paso. Therefore, based upon currently available information, ArcelorMittal Vinton denies any potential liability with regard to the Chemetco Superfund Site. To the extent U.S. EPA has any additional information indicating potential liability of ArcelorMittal Vinton (i.e. the former Border Steel plant), please provide that information.

RESPONSE TO NOVEMBER 30, 2011 REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

By responding to these Information Requests, ArcelorMittal Vinton is not admitting to liability or responsibility for the conditions at the Site and reserves the right to assert all claims and defenses available under law or equity in any action or proceeding. Neither the fact of this response, nor anything contained herein shall be construed as an acknowledgement or admission by ArcelorMittal Vinton of any responsibility whatsoever. ArcelorMittal Vinton expressly reserves all rights to challenge the relevancy, materiality, accuracy, and/or admissibility of any information, documents or materials provided in any proceeding, and reserves the right to challenge any subsequent request for information as appropriate.

ArcelorMittal Vinton generally objects to the Information Requests (including the Instructions and Definitions) to the extent that they exceed the scope of U.S. EPA's statutory authority or are otherwise vague, ambiguous, overbroad, burdensome, unreasonable, arbitrary, or capricious. ArcelorMittal Vinton specifically objects to Instruction Nos. 5 (duty to supplement), 7 (information and documents in the possession or control of former employees, agents, contractors, or attorneys), and 8 (certification).

ArcelorMittal Vinton also objects to the Information Requests to the extent they seek information that is protected as attorney work product, attorney-client privileged communications, or similar privilege available under state, federal or common law.

In addition, ArcelorMittal Vinton specifically objects to the Definition of "Chemetco" as including "both the Hartford Site and the warehouses owned or operated by Chemetco listed in Enclosure 8." Enclosure 8 contains no information, and ArcelorMittal Vinton has no idea what warehouses may have been or are owned by Chemetco. For purposes of responding to these Information Requests, ArcelorMittal Vinton interprets "Chemetco" to mean the facility located at 3754 Chemetco Lane, Hartford, Illinois, 62048, as shown on the aerial map included as Enclosure 2 to the Information Request. Notwithstanding the foregoing, ArcelorMittal Vinton did not restrict its search for records based upon Chemetco's physical address in Hartford, but instead searched for records identifying Chemetco in any way.

ArcelorMittal Vinton objects to the definition of "you", "your company" or "Respondent" to the extent that definition seeks to impose liability upon ArcelorMittal Vinton for the obligations of or actions of companies of which neither it nor its parent is the legal successor. Throughout this response, ArcelorMittal Vinton interprets the Information Request as referring to ArcelorMittal Vinton. As explained above in the Response to General Notice of Potential Liability, ArcelorMittal Vinton is a separate entity from both the former and current El Paso Iron & Metal Co. (referred to herein as "Old El Paso" and "New El Paso"). Although Border Steel and Old El Paso were at one time owned by a common corporate parent, the operating assets of Old El Paso were sold to an unrelated company – El Paso Iron & Metal I, Ltd. – in 2005, prior to the acquisition of the stock of that common corporate parent by Mittal USA (n/k/a ArcelorMittal USA) in 2007. Thus, based on the information currently available, the successor to any liabilities of Old El Paso relating to any activities involving Chemetco is New El Paso, not ArcelorMittal Vinton (f/k/a Border Steel, Inc.) and not ArcelorMittal USA (f/k/a Mittal USA) or any other ArcelorMittal entity.

Due to the foregoing corporate history and relationships, the vast majority of ArcelorMittal Vinton's responses are "none known" or "not applicable." Where ArcelorMittal Vinton located records referring to Chemetco, those records are being provided with this response even though they all relate to the operations of El Paso Iron & Metal at 1535 E. San Antonio, El Paso, TX.

In addition to the undersigned, the following other individuals provided assistance in responding to the agency's Request:

CONCLUSION

As explained above, ArcelorMittal Vinton denies any potential liability relative to the Chemetco Superfund Site, and believes that it has been mistakenly identified when the real potentially responsible party is El Paso Iron & Metal Company, as the legal successor to the liabilities of Old El Paso which – according to the records located to date – appears to have made some shipments of scrap to Chemetco during two months in 2000.

If the Agency maintains that any assumptions or interpretations made by ArcelorMittal Vinton are unfounded, or that certain aspects of this Response are incomplete, please contact Wendlene M. Lavey at 216.479.8545 or wendy.lavey@squiresanders.com, ArcelorMittal's counsel in this matter. We ask that any communications from counsel representing U.S. EPA, as well as any contact by U.S. EPA with former employees of ArcelorMittal, be through ArcelorMittal's counsel. Additionally, ArcelorMittal requests that it be kept apprised of all developments and the result of U.S. EPA's investigation into this matter, and appreciates your cooperation in this regard.
